

Music Analysis Tool

Using Music as a Primary Source
(Read the guide in its entirety before listening to the music.)

1. Describing the Music using Historical Context:

- Title: _____
- Date Composed/Recorded: _____
- Events Happening in the World/Country/Region at the Time: _____

- Recording Company and Location: _____
- Composer: _____
- Background of the Composer: (position, nationality, gender, occupation, social class, religion, ethnicity, etc.) _____

2. What did you hear? (First time played)

- Type of Music (folk, classical, blues, jazz, rock, etc.): _____
- Instruments (brass, woodwinds, strings, percussion): _____

- Vocals: Is there a vocalist in the piece? _____ What language/dialect is being sung?

3. Analyzing the Music: (Second time played)

- Compositional and Performance Style: Use musical terms to analyze the music you just described. (beat, call and response, dynamics, harmony, improvisation, melody, register, rhythm, tempo, texture, timbre, etc.) The “Jazz Glossary” created by The Center for Jazz Studies at Columbia University defines many of these terms. <http://ccnmtl.columbia.edu/projects/jazzglossary/archives.html>.

Musical Term	Analysis (How is it used in the music? Why?)

- Song Lyrics: Write down the most important words of the song. How do they help tell the song's story?

Words/Phrase	Analysis (What does the word mean? Why is it used?)

- Note anything the music informs the observer about life in the world/nation/region at the time it was created.

4. Interpreting the Music: (Based on the description and the analysis of the piece.)

- Motivation/Purpose: What is the message of the piece? What is the composer trying to do? Explain using specific references from the music.
- Audience: Based on your description and analysis of the piece, who was the intended audience for the music? Explain.
- Impact/Effectiveness: Is the composer's message effectively presented in the music? What impact would it have on the intended audience? How did it make you feel? Explain with specific references to the music and its historic context.

5. Lasting Impression: What is the most memorable or powerful aspect of this piece? Explain.
