

RANDALL VOGEL, CFE

Assistant Director, Theaters and Operations

Randy Vogel is the Performing Arts Administrator for the new Mesa Arts Center. He joined the staff in June 2002, and is responsible for the management and programming of the Center's four theaters and the Shadow Walk, the Center's outdoor oasis plaza.

Randy's career has taken him across both coasts. Prior to coming to Mesa he was the Director of Performing Arts for the California Center for the Arts in Escondido, in North San Diego County for seven years. He has held positions at the Coral Springs City Centre in Coral Springs, FL, and the Brewery Arts Center in Carson City, NV. Additionally, Randy interned at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts.

Randy holds a Master of Science degree in Arts Administration/Arts Education and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music (double bass) with a minor in Theater from Florida State University. While a student at Florida State University he was the Student Concert Director for Student Campus Entertainment. As a musician, Randy has performed extensively in orchestras, jazz ensembles and musicals.

Randy is a member of the following professional associations: the International Association of Performing Arts Administrators (sits on the Performing Arts Committee and written articles for Facility Manager), Association of Performing Arts Presenters, Western Arts Alliance (Membership Committee), TicTacs-Ticketing Tactics Taskforce (the pre-cursor to Alliance for Audience) and the Arizona Presenters Alliance where he serves on the board of directors. In addition, Randy is a member of the Mesa Downtown Rotary Club. He is married and has two daughters, Alexi and Zoie. He and his wife, Marcelle, grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, and are avid FSU college football fans and enjoy fine wines.
