“Sinatra Sings Sinatra, As I Remember It” with Frank Sinatra Jr.

PHOENIX— Join classically trained artist Frank Sinatra Jr. alongside The Phoenix Symphony for a one night only celebration of the music, life, and legend of Frank Sinatra Sr. Delivering personal recollections of life on and off stage with his iconic father, Frank Sinatra Jr. gives the audience an intimate and honest look at his father’s life and legacy. “Since we know the music, since we know the legend, now it’s time to know him,” Sinatra Jr. says. Don’t miss this one-of-a-kind multimedia concert experience including stories, photos, videos and iconic music of Frank Sinatra at Mesa Arts Center on February 4, 2016.

This performance is presented through an ongoing partnership between The Phoenix Symphony and Mesa Arts Center. The partnership, which is now in its fourth year, endeavors to provide Valley residents the unique experiences of world-class vocalists combined with virtuosity of The Phoenix Symphony at the award-winning Mesa Arts Center.

Media Availability: Interviews are available on request. Email publicrelations@phoenixsymphony.org to arrange for credentials in advance.

The Phoenix Symphony has been proudly serving the citizens of the Phoenix metropolitan area and Arizona since 1947. The Phoenix Symphony presents an annual season from September through the beginning of June, featuring full-length classical and pops concerts at Symphony Hall in downtown Phoenix, as well as concerts in Scottsdale, Mesa, Prescott and throughout central Arizona. The Symphony performs for more than 120,000 students and children, helping to introduce music to new generations through a variety of education and youth-engagement programs.

Mesa Arts Center, owned and operated by the City of Mesa, is a unique, architecturally stunning facility located in the heart of downtown Mesa. Arizona's largest multidisciplinary arts center is home to four theaters, five art galleries in the MCA Museum, and 14 art studios. Guests, patrons, and students come to Mesa Arts Center to enjoy the finest live entertainment, performances and festivals, world-class visual art exhibitions, and outstanding arts education classes. The Mesa Arts Center mission is to inspire people through engaging arts experiences that are diverse, accessible, and relevant.
