Mesa Arts Center Offering Free Preview Event for Educators

Educator Preview Night

August 16, 2018

Mesa, AZ – Mesa Arts Center invites Arizona educators to attend Educator Preview Night, a free preview event showcasing programs and events available for elementary, junior high, and high school students in the 2018-19 school year. The event, scheduled for Thursday, August 16, 4:30-6:30 p.m., will feature live entertainment by Grammy award winner and Classical Music Inside Out Artistic Director Zuill Bailey, as well as info about Mesa Arts Center's Engagement programs available for K-12 students, and a preview of performances, speakers and events slated for the 2018-19 season. RSVP and information are available at www.mesaartscenter.com/edpreviewnight.

Educators will enjoy food and drinks, goodie bags, raffle prizes, and advance access to reserve tickets for National Geographic Live! and Performing Live for Students. The school with the most educators in attendance at the event will win a free arts experience. Educators will sample the season through live entertainment while discovering a range of arts and cultural experiences for the classroom.

Mesa Arts Center is located at One East Main Street in downtown Mesa.
