Mesa Arts Center Foundation's Arts at the Center program opens applications for rental/production support for non-profit organizations interested in using MAC spaces

Mesa Arts Center Foundation's Arts at the Center program is now accepting Letters of Interest for the 2021-22 season. Arts at the Center grants support educational and non-profit organizations by providing for the use of Mesa Arts Center ("MAC") spaces, including its beautiful world-class theaters. The deadline to submit an initial Letter of Interest for Arts At the Center support during this new grant cycle is May 7, 2021. Those accepted to submit full applications will be notified on May 21, 2021.

Up to six Arts at the Center grant recipients are chosen each year to receive rent-free use of a MAC theater or other space to present a performance or activity. Applications can be for one of MAC's stages or one of its other spaces (studios, museum or outdoor spaces). Theater seating can accommodate from 100 to 1,500 attendees, depending upon the selected space and the type and size of the presentation. Past grant recipients include Alice Cooper's The Rock Teen Center-Proof is in the Pudding, Arizona School for the Arts, Dobson Montessori School, Harmony Project and Mesa Arts Academy.

An Arts at the Center Grant allows presenters to have the facilities' rental fee waived and to receive up to $1,000 in financial support to offset associated production costs. Arts at the Center applications are accepted on a rolling basis. For this cycle, Letters of Interest are due by May 7, 2021. Selected applicants will be notified by May 21 and sent a short application, which must be completed and returned by June 14. Letters of interest received after May 7 will be considered for any remaining award slots in late summer.

"We believe the access and longer-term partnerships made possible by Arts at the Center are critically important to bringing varied and extraordinary experiences to our region, and to celebrating the artistic spark in all of us. Mesa Arts Center Foundation is proud to offer a way for both established and grassroots arts organizations to inspire and celebrate with community," said Mark Asplund, chair of the Arts at the Center committee and a board member of the MAC Foundation.

Applicants can download the application here and should mail or email their Letter of Interest to: Renee Lopata, Mesa Arts Center Foundation, c/o Mesa Arts Center, PO Box 1466, Mesa, AZ 85211-1466 OR Renee.Lopata@MesaArtsCenter.com. About Arts at the Center:

The mission of Arts at the Center is to foster broader community access to Mesa Arts Center (“MAC”), through annual targeted grants of free single day use of MAC’s world-class facilities, that will inspire participants, positively impact and connect the community, and excite the public to the value of the arts. We will provide MAC facilities and services to a variety of thoughtfully selected arts and educational groups, including: (a) groups without the necessary facilities to stage their cultural events; (ii) groups around the County and State that may not consider the MAC as a venue option; and (iii) specific arts groups that the Committee and MAC identify as desirable collaborators.
