Attacca Quartet

Thursday, Oct. 19 | 7:30 p.m.

Attacca Quartet is a string quartet known for their dynamic and passionate performances. They have won numerous awards and performed in prestigious venues such as Carnegie Hall and the Kennedy Center. Attacca Quartet is also committed to contemporary music and has premiered works by several notable composers. They have released several albums, including "Real Life," which features music by Caroline Shaw.

Daniel Bernard Roumain | Redemption Songs and Sonatas

Yayoi Ikawa | Piano

Thursday, Nov. 16 | 7:30 p.m.

In celebration of the 75th birthday of singer/songwriter and composer, Robert Nesta "Bob" Marley, Daniel Bernard Roumain (DBR) has created "Redemption Songs & Sonatas," rooted in a worldview of civil rights for all. Conceived and composed by DBR for violin and piano, this intimate duet program features some of his hallmark and most moving works infused with the spirit of liberation and freedom. From Bob Marley's "Redemption Song" to the Haitian national anthem, "Redemption Songs & Sonatas" is a composer's view of our desire to define ourselves, our world and sometimes, one another.

Zuckerman Trio

Sunday, Jan. 28 | 7:30 p.m.

With a celebrated career encompassing five decades, Pinchas Zukerman reigns as one of today's most sought after and versatile musicians — violin and viola soloist, conductor and chamber musician. Performing with Canadian Juno Award-winning Amanda Forsyth, considered one of North America's most dynamic cellists, and pianist Shai Wosner internationally recognized for his exceptional artistry, musical integrity and creative insight, the Pincas Zukerman Trio, will present unforgettable evening of musical mastery.

Marc André Hamelin

Thursday, March 14 | 7:30 p.m.

Pianist Marc-André Hamelin is known worldwide for his unrivaled blend of consummate musicianship and brilliant technique in the great works of the established repertoire, as well as for his intrepid exploration of the rarities of the 19th, 20th and 21st centuries — in concert and on disc.

Simply Three | Acoustic
Thursday, April 11 | 7:30 p.m.

Simply Three returns to Mesa Arts Center with stunning visuals and exhilarating new music. This classically trained string trio destroys boundaries and pushes limits by adding their flair and innovation to popular arrangements and new compositions. Watch Simply Three shred strings before your eyes with a full visual show featuring rock, pop and original music in a way you've never heard before.

Mesa Arts Center's Classical Music Inside Out series aims to broaden access to and appreciation for classical music with all ages through a diverse range of community engagements in schools, senior living facilities, community centers and more.

CMIO is supported by Bill Passey and Maria Silva. For more information about free CMIO engagements visit mesaartscenter.com/bachinthecommunity.
