Mesa, AZ — Mesa Arts Center is excited to announce the 2023 Fall Art Studios and Arts in Service class lineup. Discover your creative potential by immersing yourself in the extraordinary world of art-making. Mesa Art Center's classes are taught by experienced, enthusiastic and professional instructors who encourage the development of creativity.

Arts in Service classes are free for veterans and service members. Fall offerings include glass, jewelry, welding, blacksmithing, photography and printmaking. All materials are included with registration. Arts in Service is sponsored by The Boeing Company, Salt River Pima Maricopa Indian Community and National Endowment for the Arts/Mid-American Art Alliance.

Adult Art Studios classes include a variety of mediums, such as glass, ceramics, welding, jewelry, weaving, dance, printmaking, drawing, photography and more. Classes are available at all skill levels, with many beginning classes that do not require any art experience. Highlights this season include Flameworking: Sculpting Critters with guest artist Brianna Perch, Beginning Small Loom Tapestry Weaving with Kristen Miologos and Relief Printmaking Workshop with Daniella Napolitano.

Youth and Teen Art Studios classes and camps include theater, illustration, ceramics, glass, felting and more. Youth camps include Let's Make Animals! Intro to the Art of Needle Felting and Under the Sea: Intro to Wet Felting a Wool Painting with Memory Bradley for ages 10–13 and Fall Ceramics Mini Camp with Madison Pennisi for ages 13+. New teen classes this season include Teen Handbuilding with Madison Pennisi and Flameworking: A Touch of Beads and Boro for Teens with JeriLyn Alderman.

To register for Mesa Arts Center summer art studio classes, visit mesaartscenter.com/classes or call the Mesa Arts Center box office during business hours at (480) 644-6520.
