Arts at the Center program opens the second round of applications for rental/production support for non-profit organizations interested in using MAC spaces

Mesa, AZ - The Mesa Arts Center Foundation's Arts at the Center program is now accepting Letters of Interest for the 2022-2023 season. Arts at the Center grants provide support to educational and non-profit organizations for the use of Mesa Arts Center ("MAC") spaces, including its beautiful world-class theaters.

The deadline to submit an initial Letter of Interest to request Arts at the Center support this cycle is September 1, 2022. Those accepted to submit full applications will be notified on September 22, 2022 and sent a short application which must be returned by October 20, 2022.

Up to six Arts at the Center grant recipients are chosen each year to present a performance or activity on one of MAC's stages or in one of its other spaces (studios, outdoor spaces). Theater seating can accommodate from 100 to 1,500 attendees, depending upon the selected space and the type and size of the presentation.

An Arts at the Center Grant allows presenters to waive the facility's rental fee and receive up to $1,000 in financial support to offset production costs. Past grant recipients include Phoenix Boys Choir, Grey Box Collective, Ballet Folklorico Quetzalli, Alice Cooper's The Rock Teen Center-Proof is in the Pudding, The Arizona School for the Arts and Harmony Project

Applicants can download the application here. Please email your Letter of Interest to Natalie Booth, azmacfoundation@gmail.com.
