Mesa, AZ – Mesa Arts Center is excited to announce the opening of The Store on Friday, Sept. 8, from 10 a.m.–10 p.m. The opening features a captivating blend of artistry and craftsmanship with live artist demonstrations, offering a unique opportunity to delve into the creative process.

The Store is an artists' cooperative gallery where you can find one-of-a-kind art and unique gifts created by a juried group of over 30 Arizona artists. Items in The Store include a variety of mediums, such as painting, wood, metal, jewelry, glass, fiber, ceramics, photography, mixed media and more. All visitors are sure to find something that fits their taste and budget.

The Store is proud to introduce two new artists, fiber artist Laurie Fagen of Fagen Designs and watercolor/mixed media artist Tish Bengston, who exemplify the richness of The Store's offerings. Fagen's exquisite wall art quilts are a fusion of texture and color that invites you into her artistic world. Bengston is captivating patrons with her watercolor paintings and willingness to share the magic behind her craft as one of the artists hosting live demonstrations. Additionally, in September, The Store celebrates the Sonoran Desert with a special "Desert Collection," which you can find just inside the entrance. Stay on the lookout for additional themed exhibitions scheduled throughout the year.
