Mesa, AZ – ALT Fest, a brand-new immersive festival, will transform Mesa Arts Center into a vibrant outdoor experience on Friday, March 21, from 6–10 p.m. This free, one-night-only event brings together art, light and technology, featuring interactive art installations, live music, augmented reality experiences, hands-on activities, art studio demonstrations, food and more.

Audiences will be captivated by live performances from an eclectic lineup of musical artists, including Tomahawk Bang, Le Idiom, Treetalking, Moreta and Books. The festival also showcases cutting-edge digital and interactive fine art by Shomit Barua, MOABYTE, Chris Ignacio, Casey Farina, Kenaim Al-Shatti, AI Film 3 and Mesa Youth Creative Agency, offering the opportunity to experience the future of creativity in an electrifying atmosphere.

There is no charge to attend ALT Fest, and parking is free. Mesa Arts Center is located at One East Main Street in downtown Mesa. For more information, visit mesaartscenter.com.

ALT Fest is presented by Google Fiber and SRP, with additional support from Global Credit Union and Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport. The event is hosted in partnership with the Mesa Arts Center Foundation.
