Mesa, AZ – Mesa Arts Center is excited to announce a new mural by internationally acclaimed artist Shepard Fairey titled "Interdependent Nature" will be completed on April 18. Located on the west side of Mesa Arts Center's campus, the mural is a vibrant addition to Downtown Mesa.

Shepard Fairey is one of the most influential street artists of the time. This is the first mural by Fairey in Arizona, marking it a significant moment for public art in the community — especially poignant as Mesa Arts Center celebrates 20 years of bringing arts enrichment to the Valley.

"This mural features imagery and symbols that remind us of the intertwined nature of earth and humanity and the need to cultivate harmony," said Shepard Fairey. "Peace, health and justice require an understanding that we are all connected parts of a whole."
