Mesa, AZ — Discover your creative potential this summer with Mesa Arts Center's inspiring lineup of Art Studios and Arts in Service classes. With offerings across various art forms, there's a class for every interest and skill level.

Arts in Service classes are free for veterans and service members. Summer offerings include paper mache, frameworking, jewelry, welding, blacksmithing, storytelling and printmaking. All materials are included with registration. Arts in Service is sponsored by The Boeing Company and Arizona Department of Veterans' Services Veteran's Donation Fund. To register or learn more about Arts in Service visit mesaartscenter.com/artsinservice.

Adult Art Studios classes include a variety of mediums, such as glass, ceramics, welding, jewelry, felting, dance, printmaking, drawing, photography and more. Classes are available at all skill levels, with many beginning classes that do not require any art experience. Highlights this season include:

- Crash Course Cloisonné with visiting artist Laura Fortune (experience required)
- Digital Storytelling: Master Content Strategy, Grow Your Audience and Monetize Your Work
- Meditation in Motion
- Beginner Silk Screen: Poster Printing
- Black & White Film Photography
- Beginner Painting: Nature In Watercolors
- Stained Glass: All Levels

Youth and Teen Art Studios classes and camps foster creativity and skill-building across media including blacksmithing, ceramics, jewelry, storytelling, printmaking and more. Featured youth offerings include:

- Blacksmithing Pendant Workshop
- Get Twisted with Borosilicate
- Comic Creations Camp
- Kids Handbuilding: Chef Mud Masters!
- Teen Beginning Jewelry
- The Time Travelers Radio Play Project

Thanks to generous funding from the Nancy Wolter Scholarship Fund, Mesa Arts Center is proud to offer full scholarships for summer youth camps for families who qualify. Learn more and apply online at mesaartscenter.com/youthclassinfo.
