YOUTH

These programs are designed to stimulate the creativity and minds of our youth while helping them build skills in the individual performing and visual arts disciplines.

INTERGENERATIONAL

Classes created to serve the needs of YOUTH and ADULTS in increasing their skills, knowledge and experiences in the performing and visual arts.

ADULT

Traditional adult continuing education classes are entertaining as well as educational – providing adults with instructional guidance in the arts discipline of their choice.

WORKSHOPS

Special skills are taught in workshops ranging from storytelling to printmaking. Each workshop has a specific focus and is taught by experienced instructors.

Mesa adult residents get approximately 10% off* the listed price for adult classes. *This does not apply to workshops, youth classes or camps.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Registrations will not be processed prior to 8am on November 17. Registrations for all classes are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. Check course description on website.

REGISTRATION FORM

All boxes MUST BE FILLED to ensure correct registration. Payment is due in full with your registration form. Failure to fill out the registration form correctly or to enclose payment will delay the processing of your registration. A $25 collection fee will be charged for all returned checks.

MEET THE STAFF

MEET LEAD CERAMICS INSTRUCTOR, JESSE ARMSTRONG.

Born in 1980, Jesse Armstrong grew up in Norman, Oklahoma. Even as a child, Jesse conveyed interests in art and science and credits his mother, a professional painter, and father a trained biologist and environmental chemist in inspiring his career choice as a ceramic artist as well as the artwork he produces to this day.

Jesse received his Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Studio Art with emphases in ceramics and sculpture in 2005 from the University of Oklahoma at Norman and in 2010 received a Master of Fine Arts degree in Ceramics from Arizona State University.

Jesse has also worked as an artist in residence at Anderson Ranch Arts Center and Mesa Arts Center, been a Visiting Researcher at Arizona State University and has worked at numerous Art Centers, Colleges and Universities including Arizona State University, the Firehouse Arts Center and Anderson Ranch Arts Center.

Jesse exhibits his mixed media sculptures nationally and is currently the Lead Instructor of the Mesa Arts Center Ceramics Studio.

MEET LEAD GLASS INSTRUCTOR, LAURIE NESSEL.

Laurie's artistic career began when proverbial childhood doodling evolved into more sophisticated rapidograph drawings, then shifted into serial explorations of various mediums. When Laurie was mesmerized watching Dan Dailey blow glass at Haystack-Hinckley School of Crafts in Maine in 1971, her course was set in glass for the next 4+ decades.

She studied glassblowing at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls, and with Robert Coleman at Haystack, Maine. Upon graduating with a B.S. in 1978, she studied stained glass and assisted Roger Darricarrere in Chartres, France. Returning stateside, the desert beckoned and Laurie moved to Tempe and settled into creating residential stained glass for Robin's Stained Glass. Her own stained glass company, started in 1983, provided her a living until 2009, after which she concentrated on teaching flameworking and stained glass and directing the glass program at the Mesa Arts Center where she has taught since 1998.

Her flameworked art and related articles have been featured in 1000 Beads by Lark, 2014, Glassline, Glass Art and The Flow magazines. Laurie co-authored The Birds of Phoenix and Maricopa County, 2017. She studied flameworking from Loren Stump, Brett Pierce, Bandhu Dunham, Janice Miltenberger, Leah Fairbanks, Kristen Frantzen Orr, Matt Eskuche, Steve Sizelove and many others. Laurie also takes oil color classes taught by Agustin Vargas at the MAC, works as a field tech for an environmental consulting firm, and leads dragonfly, butterfly and desert tortoise field trips for Maricopa Audubon Society.
